The g makes Conde Nast's top 60

Following a fantastically successful first six months of business, the g hotel in Galway, with interiors by Philip Treacy, has been included in the highly prestigious Conde Nast Hot List, which features the top 60 new hotels from around the world. The Conde Nast reviewer commented:

“His (Treacy’s) fusion of styles, from Art Deco to Baroque, with running motifs of shells, light and the swirls of the sea does not disappoint” (Conde Nast Hot List 2006).

Mary McKeon, Chief Executive of Monogram Hotels, described the hotel’s inclusion as a “dream come true”.

“From the outset we wanted to make Conde Nast’s top 60 Hot List.

“We have just been bowled over by the response of the press and the public to the g. We knew that Philip’s work here was very special, and this has been borne out by great press coverage and positive feedback from our guests. Staying at the g is a uniquely glamorous experience, and with the opening of our Spa in February, the hotel is now the ultimate location for an indulgent get away”.

The g also made the Sunday Times Travel’s Hot List for 2006.

The hotel was first featured in the Sunday Times Style magazine in November 2005, and has since gone on to clock up front page coverage in glossies and broadsheets around the world. The Sunday Times Style magazine commented:

“Treacy’s demand for perfection has filtered through every aspect of the interiors, from the bespoke concierge desk to the artwork in every room”.

The hotel has also appeared in the New York Times, Sunday Telegraph and British and German editions of Vogue. Over the next couple of months it will appear in Vogue in America, France and Brazil. An article on the hotel and its designer will also be featured in the June edition of the prestigious US title, Travel + Leisure.
