Internationally Acclaimed g Hotel Celebrate Elite Traveller's Top 100 Rating

The exquisite, award-winning, five-star g Hotel is proud to announce that the Linda Evangelista Suite featured in the internationally acclaimed Elite Traveller Magazines List of the Top 101 Suites in the World. Designed by renowned milliner and Galway native Philip Treacy, the Linda Evangelista suite was called after the supermodel and close personal friend of the designer. The g Hotel is one of Ireland's most luxurious spa-hotels located in the heart of vibrant Galway city.

The 1,292 sq.ft suite is an iconic depiction of the style and creativity of Philip Treacy. The beautifully ornate oyster bed, is said to be the actual bed that the supermodel stated she would not get out of bed for less than $10,000 a day. An exotic zebra rug warms the floor while a large zebra bust emerges from the wall.

"You'll adore madcap milliner Philip Treacy's approach to hotel design," said the magazine of the suite. "Not limited by convention, his eccentric choices —think graphic zebra rugs and a bathroom in wall-to-wall mirrors —are a glamorous cocktail of high fashion and playful kitsch. The designer's attention to detail extended right down to engineering the look of the Frette linens."
