

New General Manager at the g

THE g Hotel has recently appointed Damien O'Riordan as its new General Manager.

Damien has built a career for himself working in a selection of the most renowned establishments across Ireland and the United States of America and now plans to draw on these experiences to create the ultimate hospitality experience for guests, both locally and internationally at the g hotel.

With over 15 years of experience in the industry, Damien first completed a Diploma in Hospitality Management from GMIT and joined the team at the g after four years at Adare Manor Hotel and Golf Resort, where he worked as an influential Assistant General Manager. Prior to this, he spent over eight years working with the Ritz Carlton Hotel Group in Virginia, California, Washington DC and Jamaica.

Damien O'Riordan.

A native of Cork city, Damien and his family have now made Galway their home and reside at Furbo.